

FRIENDS OF SISTERS LIBRARY (FOSL) POLICY
USE OF FOSL NAME
November 2017

The name Friends of Sisters Library (FOSL) is a nonprofit name registered and certified by the State of Oregon and resides within the rules and statutes of Section 501 (c) (3) corporation of the Internal Revenue Code. On occasion, the FOSL board may decide to partner or collaborate with another nonprofit organization for a similar goal. At that time, the board will review the goals and purpose of the partnership or collaboration, decide if it is within our scope of organization, and make a decision on the proposal. No board member, organization, media outlet or advertising entity should use the FOSL name without board approval.
